Aqaba Community and Economic Development (ACED) Program

RFP-009-2008

Solicitation Invitation

The Aqaba Community and Economic Development (ACED) Program in collaboration with ASEZA's Local Community Development Directorate (LCDD), is interested in entering a partnership with an organization that can implement grass-roots community mobilization in up to six neighborhoods within the Aqaba Special Economic Zone.

Solicitation:

The ACED Program is seeking a Jordanian Partner Organization (Grantee) to continue mobilization of citizens in two already active neighborhoods of Aqaba and expand the program to 6 neighborhoods in the coming year. The Neighborhood Development Activity will include formation of team of active citizens within each neighborhood, “on-the-job training” of the members of the neighborhood teams to prioritize and address local needs, mobilization of community resources to support implementation of neighborhood selected projects, and collaboration with local government partners.

The Grantee is expected to have experience in community mobilization and participation or similar activities.

Potential offerors must request full details of the solicitation, SOW-023-2008, in order to comply with submission requirements.
